VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1868. NO. 86.

The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

"THE LAND WE LOVE."—We have had frequent occasion to refer to this admirable magazine, and we return to a consideration of its merits with special pleasure, after examining the Novembernumber.

This enterprise has peculiar claims upon us. First of all, Lieutenant General Hill deserves well of the South. Sterh and rigid as he was, we all know that he never called on his men to go where he was not ready to lead; and the spirit which made us all recognise him as an earnest, representative man through the war, shines out through the pages of his magazine. For this reason it has become an exponent for Southern thought and sentiment. It has the true coloring of the land we love; and bids fair to preserve for posterity the very best collection of authentic facts connected with our struggle for independence to be found in the country. Contrast it for a moment with the periodicals of the North. It lacks the pictorial lies of Harper, and the careful imitations of English literature to be found in the Atlantic; but, it has an individual life and vigor, a coloring borrowed from the times, which combine to make it not only a Southern, but an American magazine.

Viewed in this just light it should be a special object with all of us to give it a hearty support. The man now carves the statue, and the lion is prone before his conqueror; but General Hill furnishes the material from which a new study may be made and a new group cast.

Let us show that we are superior to the blandishments of leg pictures, and give our support to a magazine which deserves the success which we are glad to know it is achieving.—Norfolk Virginian.

A TOTAL ECLIPSE IN 1869.—Prof. S. V. White writes to a New York paper of a total eclipse of the sun which is to occur in August 1869. His notes of the track of the totality, calculated fifteen years ago, are as follows:

The sun will rise eclipsed in the interior of Siberia, on the following morning of August 7, 1869, whence the shadow will move in a north-easterly direction; then turning eastwardly and westwardly, will pass over the Behring's Strait and Northern Alaska about noon, local time. Thence moving across a part of British North America, it will re-enter the United States in Montana, between two and three P. M., local time. Moving thence across Western Nebraska, it will pass diagonally through Iowa, passing over Sioux City, Des Moines, and Keokuk about 5 o'clock. Thence it will pass still south-east, over Jacksonville, Illinois, across Southern Indiana, Central Kentucky, East Tennessee, into and across North Carolina, and will touch the sea coast in Pamlico Sound; and it will finally leave the earth not far from the Bermudas. It will be visible in all parts of the United States and total over a belt of one hundred miles wide along the line just indicated, the sun being hid more than four minutes.

THE TWO THIRDS OF CONGRESS.—The Radicals have a nice little game by which to head off Grant, or retain their mastery over him. They have re counted the vote in Mississippi, and though the Commanding General reported that the Constitution was rejected by 7,629 majority, they, by adroit arithmetic, find the majority the other way. This admits five carpet-baggers to Congress. The election in Louisiana is to be charged to "rebel terrorism," and set aside. That disposes of five more anti-Radicals. Georgia is to be subjected to the same ordeal, and her seven members will disappear. In the meantime, sundry Democrats from the Northern States will have their seats contested, and a contest is equivalent to eviction. By this means, the Party will regain its two-thirds ascendancy in Congress, and hold Gen. Grant in the same position of impotency that Mr. Johnson has been in for two years. It would seem from these precautions that Radicals are expecting rebellion and treason on the part of Grant, and they are determined to be ready for him. But have they canvassed all their own party; do they know that none of those elected as Radicals will not become traitors with Grant? That's an important point.—Richmond Whig.

If General Grant has, as it is stated in the papers, asserted that he will attend the complimentary dinner to be given to Mr. Evarts in New York, in case certain gentlemen named be not present, then he has said at least one foolish thing and been guilty of a gross breach of good manners. Messrs. Randall, McCulloch and Wells are recognized as gentlemen by Mr. Evarts. They are his colleagues in the Cabinet. For Gen. Grant, or any other man, to express any opinion as to who ought to be at the dinner to Mr. Evarts is inexcusable presumption. If he has doubts as to the character of any of the guests, let him stay away.

We cannot credit the story. General Grant would hardly be guilty of such impoliteness.—Richmond Dispatch.

At one time a woman could hardly walk through the streets of San Francisco without having every one pause to gaze on her; and a child was so rare that once at a theatre in the same city, where a woman had taken her infant, when it began to cry, just as the orchestra began to play, a man in the pit cried out, "Stop those fiddles and let the baby cry; I haven't heard such a sound for ten years." The audience applauded this sentiment; the orchestra stopped, and the baby continued its performance amid unbounded enthusiasm.

Edmund McIntosh, a colored Democrat, has lost three cows and his plough horse. He was warned before the election "that it would be worse for him." Two of his cows have disappeared. The third—fat and in full health—was killed, the hide taken off, and left on the spot. His horse was poisoned. If this is a sample of the liberty of free suffrage, where will it end?—Augusta Sentinel.

We trust our friend of the Cleveland Plaindealer will be able to explain what has become of that tremendous Israelite vote in Ohio and other States that was to be cast for Seymour and Blair.—Louisville Courier.

We can. The day before the election we noticed in the Courier or some other Democratic paper an article headed "To Your Tents, O! Israel." Our Hebrew friends evidently went to their tents and remained.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.
It is self-acting and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.
All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily fall them, into or less.
It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.
The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.
The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.
It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.
Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

STAY LAWS.

Gov. Holden, in his message, recommends the repeal of all the stay laws now on the statute-book. We believe it is generally conceded, that the stay laws, passed during the war, were of incalculable evil to the people. They were passed in obedience to the general clamor for relief; but we believed, at the time, that they were unnecessary and would prove injurious,—and such the result has proven. But while we are opposed, on principle, to stay laws, because generally constructed adversely to the just and proper claims of creditors, yet we are not prepared to say that the blunder, during the war, of passing stay laws did not really create the necessity for the passage of such a law as was adopted by the first State Convention held after the war. At least, the belief was almost universal, about that time and since, that some such measure of relief was absolutely imperious. That law did not ignore the just claims of creditors, but gave to debtors longer time for payment. We have doubted whether that law would really accomplish more good than harm, but we are not prepared to say what have been the practical results of it, to any extent. It served, for a time, the purpose of putting all classes of creditors on the same footing, and, perhaps, prevented the merciless creditor from forcing his debtor's property to sale and sacrifice, thus defeating the claims of other creditors equally meritorious, entirely.

To what extent the debtors of the State have availed themselves of the stay laws in operation, we are not prepared to say, but it strikes us it would be a palpable violation of good faith to those parties, who, relying on the pledges of the legislative authority, have proceeded upon the policy set forth in the stay laws in existence, of paying their debts by instalments, to have those laws repealed, nolens volens.

It is the positive duty of the legislative authority to protect, as far as it can be done with fairness and justice to all, the people from violence and oppression. Former legislative bodies may have, for the lack of foresight, blundered, and, by so doing, may have marked out a course of policy which, if interrupted abruptly, would involve a general ruin. In such cases, true patriotism and simple justice to all would be rather to modify, palliate existing evils, rather than cut them off violently, if, by so doing, greater evils and ruin would follow.

For several years, we have anticipated the arrival of the period in this State, when, from the restiveness of anxious creditors, the stringency of partizan rancor, or indifference to the condition of the property holders in the State, an attempt would be made, by the repeal of the stay laws, to force them into bankruptcy, and hence, for some time, we urged strenuously upon the debtors in the State to seek a general compromise with their creditors. Failing to secure this, as a last resort, we urged them to go into bankruptcy. The expensiveness, however, of the bankrupt law, and the uncertainties connected with it, and the strong hope with many creditors that they might work out, have led them to defer the evil day. What is to be the effect of the entire repeal of the stay laws at once? Why, while many indulgent creditors have borne with their debtors, in the hope and with the assurance that they would not be the losers by kindly delaying to sue, the few creditors, who have obtained judgment, would at once seize upon the entire estates of their creditors, force them to sale and thus crush the debtor and the other creditors hopelessly! This strikes us as the certain result. Many sharpers stand ready to take advantage of these cash sales, to possess themselves of the hard earnings of the debtor, paying no fair consideration, and thus a large share of the property in the hands of the people would be concentrated into few hands, forcing emigration or pauperism upon many of our best people.—Is this the design of the Executive recommendation? Is this one of the methods, invented by a cold and fiendish malignity, by which the "rebel Democracy" is to be wiped out "root and branch,"—to use the envenomed and foolish language of the "Governor's" organ!

Before action is taken upon this subject, we hope legislators will duly weigh its probable results, and possess themselves of the soundest and wisest views of those best capable to advise in such an emergency.

THE MISSISSIPPI CONSTITUTION DECLARED RATIFIED!—Our readers may well be astonished at this result; but it is even the fact. The way in which the thing was managed was as follows:

The Constitutional Convention of Mississippi appointed a committee of five, who were charged with the duty of making a final return of the election for the ratification of the Constitution. Mr. W. H. Gibbs, the chairman of the committee, has reported, declaring the Constitution to have been duly ratified and adopted by a majority of the legal votes cast, and setting aside the elections held in the counties of Copiah, Carroll, Chickasaw, De Soto, Lafayette, Rankin, and Yallabusha, on account of threats, intimidation and violence practiced in said counties!!

WE BEG TO BE EXCUSED!

A Northern Democratic paper declares that it wants "to see Radicalism carry out its measures to the fullest extent,"—the object being to teach the country to "stand by the Democratic party,"—and presents the following cheerful programme. It "wants to see" the Radicals—

"Go on with their reconstruction.
Go on with their negro suffrage.
Go on with their white disfranchisement.
Go on with their Freedm n's Bureau.
Go on with their disunion.
Go on with their usurpation.
Go on with their unequal taxation.
Go on with their violation of rights—their disregard of the Constitution—their barrel of white men, and all the devilish doctrines they have preached and practiced since the earth was cursed with the first one of them.

We want the people to see just what they are, what wrongs they can, and what outrages they will, perpetrate.

We want the masses to get a dose of their dirty doctrines that will do them for the next ten generations, and we don't want Grant to stand in the way of that dose being thrust down their throats. Let him go with Congress. The party that endorses Congress elected him. He belongs to it, and we pray God that he may stick to it."

Now such silly twaddle as the foregoing but serves to fortify the impression, which we have entertained for some time, that the suffering and oppressed condition of the South is but a matter of secondary moment with our "Northern brethren," compared with their desire to get into power. The proposition is one of intense selfishness. The South is the sufferer from these Radical excesses,—not the North,—and we "want to see" nothing of the sort so flippantly prescribed above.

Since the commencement of this disastrous work of so called reconstruction, we have been told that our speedy deliverance was to be effected at the hands of the "generous and magnanimous masses" of the Northern people. We have been pointed to the ballot box, in November, 1868, as the potent agent, which, like the wand of a magician, was to dispel our woes and rift the clouds above us. We have been assured that the Northern masses were disgusted with "Radical excesses," and that they would seize the first tangible opportunity of hurling their indignation at the heads of our oppressors. The bolts seem to have fallen on other heads.

It is all very well for Northern Democratic editors to be willing to await, with philosophic patience, the return of the party to power, as soon as the masses shall become disgusted with the monstrous measures of Radicalism, and to urge them on, with a view to that result, to push those excesses to the verge. With us of the South, however, it requires endurance, as well as patience, and we are worried out, in body and mind, with these atrocious and unfeeling oppressions.

We infinitely prefer that the Radical party, now in the flush of its triumph, shall cease its work of cruelty, lawlessness and injustice,—shall learn the lessons of fraternity and of wisdom,—shall go back to the Constitution,—and that Gen. Grant, taking counsel of the inspirations of an enlarged patriotism, shall win the South to hearty re-union by kindness and justice, rather than further repel it by "sticking" to the policy which has alienated and well nigh ruined it. Such a work is above all party!

THOSE ARMS.

In his recent message to the Legislature, "Gov." Holden, under the head of "Militia," says:

"The expenditure incurred thus far on account of the militia, is quite small. I did not deem it expedient or necessary to avail myself of the power conferred upon me to purchase arms. A considerable quantity of arms, with necessary equipments and ammunition, has been procured without cost, save for transportation."

How were these arms obtained? And whence? Why did not the "Governor" deign to inform the Legislature? It is very certain that the Secretary of War did not furnish them, because that functionary had already expressly refused to do so,—grounding his refusal on the Act of Congress which prohibits the organization of the Militia in North Carolina, among other Southern States. They must, therefore, have been sent to the "Governor," in reply, doubtless, to his anxious and earnest application, either by some Northern Governor or by some Puritan "benevolent" or "Christian" Association. If the former, it was a piece of incidents impertinence, prompted by a desire to involve our people in fratricidal strife, for party purposes;—if the latter, then it was of a piece with that "Christian philanthropy" which sent Sharpe's rifles into "bleeding Kansas," and which supplied that old villain and murderer, John Brown, with pikes and guns at Harper's Ferry.

But the arms are here,—however obtained,—whether begged by the Executive or officiously and murderously volunteered by Northern zealots or Governors. Let them rest in the Arsenal. Better that—better anything, than that they should be placed in the hands of men, banded together on the menacing pretence of exclusive "loilty." Look at Arkansas and learn a lesson, Governor.

The Governor says, in his message, that there are peace and quiet in North Carolina. That is so. If he has the disposition to preserve this quiet, let those arms stay where they are.

STATE PENITENTIARY.

The enquiry of Mr. Moore, one of the Senators from the 19th District, demanding the report of the Commissioners on the location of the State Penitentiary, calls to mind a rumor, which we have heard for several days, that the Commissioners not only located the Penitentiary at Lockville, but purchased, for its site and use, eight thousand acres of land, for the little sum of one hundred thousand dollars!! We have no specific information upon the subject, but find there is very general dissatisfaction expressed at the outlay of so immense a sum, for lands alone, at the outset.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called for the report from the Committee appointed to locate the Penitentiary. He desired to know something about the purchase of a large amount of lands, to secure homesteads for convicts!

On motion of Mr. Lassiter, the consideration of the matter was postponed until to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Moore, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Nov. 19, 1868.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Martin, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The Chair, in accordance with the motion of Mr. French, adopted on yesterday, raising a Committee on Counties and Townships, appointed Messrs. White, of the 1st Judicial District; Jarvis, of the 2d; Smith, of Wayne, of the 3d; French, of the 4th; Williams, of Harnett, of the 5th; Hinnant, of the 6th; Carey, colored, of the 7th; McCanless, of the 8th; Gray, of the 9th; Gilbert, of the 10th; Carson, of the 11th; and Painter, of the 12th.—Mr. French, as the mover, to be chairman.

Messrs. Malone, Sinclair, Leary, colored, and French were added to the Committee on Judiciary; and Mr. Seymour to the Committee on Finance.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the passage of the resolution in regard to the mileage of Sheriffs.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution paying to Trustees of the University, who were not members of the Legislature, the same per diem and mileage as members, while here performing duties connected with that Institution.

Mr. Sinclair said, in support of his resolution, that some of the Trustees were very poor men, and could not afford to travel and maintain themselves here at their own expense. Some of them had been forced to return home on account of their poverty.

The resolution lies over, under the rule.

Mr Smith, of Martin, gave notice that he would, on to-morrow, introduce a resolution in regard to the Stay Law.

Mr. Welch offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, a motion was offered, on yesterday, by a young member of this House, that the Committee on Privileges and Elections be requested and instructed to enquire whether there were not members here, who were disqualified by the 14th. Article, known as the Howard Amendment; AND, WHEREAS, it is said that there are members, occupying seats in this Assembly, who are not citizens of the State,

Therefore, it is moved, that the said Committe be further requested and instructed to enquire whether there are not members here, who are citizens of other States, and consequently ineligible as members of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina.

Mr. Seymour said that, simply on account of its phraseology, he would move to lay it on the table.

Mr. Sinclair could not see the necessity for such a motion. He thought the Republican party strong enough to protect itself, and he was willing that the resolution should go to the Committee.

Mr. Seymour replied that he would support any resolution, properly and correctly drawn, to inquire into the qualifications of anybody, but the preamble of this had nothing to do with the object ostensibly sought after. It was simply intended as a slur.

Mr. Gatling called for a reading of the resolution.

Mr. Seymour withdrew for a moment or two his motion to table.

The resolution was again read, when Mr. Seymour renewed his motion and it was declared carried by a vote of 33 in the affirmative to 26 in the negative; when

Mr. Welch said that, while his knowledge of parliamentary usage was very limited, he must say the impression had prevailed with him, that the vote of a quorum, at least, was necessary in the determination of all resolutions and bills, here. He saw that a quorum did not vote to lay this resolution upon the table. In answer to the remarks of the gentleman who opposed the resolution,

[Here Mr. Seymour arose to a point of order, saying the matter had been declared settled, and, therefore, Mr. Welch was out of order.]

The Chair replied that he took the remarks of the gentleman from Haywood in the light of an explanation.

Mr. Seymour replied that he did not see how they could be so construed.

Mr. Welch replied that if the gentleman would have patience, he would endeavor to enlighten him. Mr. W. continued: I can inform the gentleman that I was influenced in the introduction of the resolution, by the purest motives. I came into this House with conservative views and principles, representing the interests of the people not only of Western North Carolina, but, I hope, the interests of the people of the entire State. It gave me pain to see, in the resolution of yesterday, a spirit of proscription, [Here the much as if some of us were compelled to kneel into this House—so difficult is the passage. This should not be. It is time that passions and prejudices should die away and conciliation and good feelings should mark our deliberations. But if a portion of us are to be so scrupulously measured, by the rule and square of the 14th article, in order to purge this House, I think it equally important that others should be measured by the laws of the State controlling citizenship. What unfairness is there in this? I am responsible for the resolution, and mean just exactly what I say.

Mr. French said that if they were in that accord to the General Government, which they should be, we must act up to the requirement of the Acts of Congress. He simply offered the resolution to purge the House of those members laboring under disabilities imposed by Act of Congress. He would support any resolution, properly drawn up, looking to an investigation of the qualifications of any member, and would support this resolution, if the preamble were stricken out.

Mr. Welch: It seems, sir, we are both working for the same end,—only we take different roads to reach it. I would have no objection to striking out the preamble.

[Here the Speaker announced that the discussion had taken up enough time, and the matter was dropped.]

By Mr. French: A couple of bills,—one directing the Attorney General to enquire into the qualifications of persons holding office; the other providing for the maintaining of public roads. Both were referred to the appropriate Committees.

By the same: A bill authorizing the County Commissioners of New Hanover to issue bonds in sums not exceeding $100 each, payable in the future, not exceeding three years hence, and not bearing above 8 per cent. interest. Referred.

By B. W. Morris, colored: A bill to grant a charter for a Ferry on Neuse River. Referred.

By Mr. French: A bill to amend the charter of the City of Wilmington. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

On motion of Mr. Bowman, the special order (his resolution of yesterday) was taken up.

Mr. Hodnett said, that as to the propriety of passing this section at first, he had now nothing to say. But now he was opposed to the resolution of Mr. Bowman, repealing the provisions of the 14th section of the article of the Constitution, concerning surveys, &c. In many counties the work of the survey and maps had been completed; in others almost completed, and, in a great many, already begun. Now some counties have been put to some expense to accomplish this work, and, if you pass this measure, other counties will reap the benefit and pay nothing for it. But there is another view of the matter. It cannot be disguised that there are many of our people in the Middle and Eastern portion of our State emigrating.—Therefore, I wish to have accurate and complete maps of all the Western counties, that, in case our white people of the East should be driven from their homes, they might see the advantages of removing to the Western counties, and not altogether abandon our good old State. His county had completed theirmap, (here he exhibited it,) and no expense had been gone into for a new survey, and other counties could operate on the same plan. These maps would be of great service to induce people of other States to come amongst us. All the advantages are marked out, the school districts, water courses and powers were shown, and all information concerning the county could be furnished any one wishing to settle there, without trouble or loss of time. Now that this work was almost completed, in a great many counties, he doubted the policy of abandoning it. But if the House decides upon that course of action, he would offer the following provisio:

"Provided, That in those counties where surveys and maps have been made or commenced, the county Commissioners are required to have payment made for the same."

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, was in favor of the resolution. No survey or map was required in his county.

Mr. Bowman took the floor and proceeded to reply to Mr. Hodnett, and, in the course of his remarks, made various objections to the proviso.

Mr. Hodnett said his proviso was misunderstood. It was merely to provide that the Commissioners should be required to pay for the work already done, in case this resolution was adopted. But as he had understood that would be done in any case, he withdrew the proviso.

Messrs. Blair, Ingram, Leary, (colored,) and Vest opposed the resolution.

Mr. Downing did not think the expense in his county would exceed $100, and he was also opposed to the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Sinclair said that if this system of expenditure was continued, he could assure gentlemen, that their majorities, in the next election, would be still further reduced. It is a matter of dollars and cents, and the people would not be slow to cast up the account. He knew that was the hardest thing they had to work against in the last election. Mr. S. continued to offer objections to the measure,—the chief argument being the enormous taxation it would entail upon the people of the counties. It would cost his county $600 or $700.

Mr. Bowman again took the floor in explanation of his resolution. He said that his position had been misunderstood. He wished to repeal so much of the law as makes it incumbent on the county Commissioners to have the said maps and surveys. It would cost his county at least $600, and be of no earthly benefit. Now as to whether or not other counties should have them, why that could be left to their option.

Mr. Seymour entered into an explanation of the law,—the pith of the argument being that the law passed last session, in regard to this matter, was merely a recognition of the provisions of the Constitution. He would support the resolution, if there was incorporated a proviso in it, that would prevent it from forbidding any future surveys and maps, which the Commissioners might deem it necessary to have made.

Mr. Pou then offered the following:

Provided, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to forbid actual surveys and maps to be made in counties, when the Commissioners shall determine to make such surveys and maps.

Which was adopted, and the resolution, as amended, then passed its second reading.

Mr. French moved that 10 o'clock, A. M., be hereafter the hour of assembling. Carried.

Mr. Justice wished to know if there was anything upon the Calendar that could properly come before the House now.

The Chair replied that there was nothing.

The House then adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very attractive advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a tricky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large amount to be sold, cost with one eye shut? so as them can't tell how much they lose, but still, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE FOR HIS CHILDREN. NEW YORK

No extra charge for Females
No charge for Medical Examinat'n, Policies or stamps.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of such death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy holder.

To illustrate the importance to the police-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or in a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1868.

SESSION SUBSCRIBERS.

Members wishing the Sentinel for the session will please hand in their names to our Reporters, in either House, or send them to the office. We purpose giving as full and accurate reports of the proceedings as possible. The terms of the Daily will be $1 per month. The Weekly and Semi-Weekly will be furnished on liberal terms.

See advertisement of Austin, Corbin & Co., in another column.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to the Copartnership notices of Dancy, Hyman & Co. The gentlemen composing the firm are all too well known in North Carolina to require any endorsement at our hands.

See Prospectus of Julius A. Bonitz, Proprietor of the Goldsboro' Daily Messenger, who proposes to publish a German Democratic paper in that town.

It will be noticed that the sale of the House and Lot on Lenoir Street has been postponed. The property will be sold in front of the Court House, on Saturday, at 12 o'clock, M., by Geo. M. Whiting, Esq., Agent.

Masonic Notice.—Meeting of Grand Lodge, F. A. M.: Donald W. Bain, Grand Secretary.

M. T. H. Peoples announces himself, by request of many citizens, as a Democratic candidate for Commissioner in the Eastern Ward.

RALEIGH.—The number of strangers in the City is less than usual at the first meeting of a Legislature. Our landlords and merchants, however, may look for a busy time during the next five or sixweeks.—The Circuit Court meets on the 30th. inst., the Grand Lodge of Masons convenes on the 7th. of December, and the Supreme Court comes together early in January,—all of which will attract crowds of visitors to the City. Moral: Now is the time to advertise.

THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE.—This admirable establishment keeps up its reputation as one of the best Hotels in the country, North or South. Mr. Blair has no superior as a host, anywhere; and this is attested by the perfect cleanliness which pervades every department of his house, the generous fare which he spreads, and by the experience of all who sojourn with him. We regard the Yarborough, under his management, as one of the features of the City.

FEDERAL COURT—TUCKER HALL.—The U. S. Circuit Court will be held in this City on Monday, the 30th. inst. We are informed that Tucker Hall has been rented for the Court, during the Term. It will, of course, only be occupied by the Court, during the day-time, and this arrangement will not prevent the Proprietors from renting it out at night for exhibitions or other purposes.

CITY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We are gratified to learn that all of the Sunday Schools, attached to the various Churches in the City, are in a highly flourishing condition, and are kept up with energy, efficency and the best results. A small, but excellent, Organ has been ordered, we understand, for the Sunday School of Christ Church, (Episcopal,) which will greatly assist the choral exercises of the children.

ST. MAUR.—St. Maur had a good audience, last night,—and, we may add, a delighted audience. His ventriloquism is unsurpassed, and his tricks of legerdemain dexterous and astonishing. Besides these, there are many other pleasing features in the performance. He gives another exhibition to night, with attractive novelties.—Go and see St. Maur and take the "little people" with you.

PERSONAL.—Among the arrivals in the City, we are pleased to observe those of Gen. T. L. Clingman and P. H. Winston, Esq. Both of these gentlemen are stopping at the Yarborough House.

THE UNIVERSITY.—The "Trustees of the University" held another meeting at the Capitol, on Wednesday, and were to have had still another on yesterday. Nothing practical, so far as we are apprised, has yet been accomplished. It is rumored that, somehow or other, the question of making the University a mixed Institution,—accessible to negroes as well as whites,—has arisen, and that the proposition only obtained three votes, to-wit: WILLIAM B. RODMAN, of Beaufort; Pilgrim Ashley, of Massachusetts; and Fent Taylord. No one can be surprised at the course of the last two named, but that of Judge Rodman, in view of his past associations, may, probably, excite astonishment with some. If this rumor is incorrect, we will set either of the parties right.

THERE ARE NOW confined in the Newbern jail thirty-seven prisoners. It is a singular fact, as stated by the Newbern Journal of Commerce, that in all this large number of violators of the law, there is not one white man, born on Southern soil!

IMMIGRATION MEETING.—A general meeting, for the purpose of taking into consideration the important subject of Immigration, and to make final preparations for the sending of Agents to Europe, will be held at Goldsboro, on Saturday, the 28th inst. The Agents (Messrs. Atkinson and Truch) are expected to leave for their mission on or about the 4th of December next. Persons from all parts of the State are invited to attend.

LEGISLATURE, YESTERDAY.—It will be observed, by yesterday's Senate proceedings, that Mr. Avery's case has been placed upon the same footing with that of Mr. Oates,—both having been deferred to December 10th., by which time, it is to be hoped, the alleged disabilities of the Senators will be removed, or the Senate, upon due consultation, will see the matter in a different and proper light. The reader cannot fail to be struck with the course of Mr. Barrow, who, once a moderate and fair man, has become one of the most illiberal partizans in the Senate.

In the House, Mr. Welch, the new and promising Representative from Haywood, waked up the "big Injun" from New Hanover, who aspires to the leadership in the House,—to the evident disgruntlement of Seymour, of Craven, who doesn't relish the idea of "looking up" to French. Parlezvous has the inside track, thus far. It is roughly estimated that, within four days, he has been on the floor about forty-four times.

The remarkable proposition of Col. Sinclair to pay Trustees of the University the same per diem and mileage as members of the Legislature, is another stride of Radical extravagance. Such a thing was unheard of in the old and better days of the University. Will "Judge" Tourgee take mileage from Transylvania, Robinson from Onslow, &c.?

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION.

We have urged the preservation of the Democratic organizations in this State, not with the view of keeping up a contest upon national politics, but the better to concentrate the efforts of the people in improving our material interests and to secure such modifications of existing State laws, &c., as are essential to prosperity.

Gen. Wade Hampton, the President of the Democratic organization in South Carolina, in an address to the people of that State, urges a similar course. He says:

"The more effectually to keep up the Democratic clubs of the several Districts, and in order further to recognize fully all the industrial elements that are essential to the prosperity of the State, we earnestly recommend that features looking to the subjects of immigration, agriculture, manufactures, and education be engrafted upon each club, so that an organized and systematic effort may be at once made to add to our population, to promote the industries of the State, and to advance the cause of popular intelligence. And, in order to carry out these auxiliary features to be attached to the Democratic clubs throughout the State, and to devise a uniform plan of action, we respectfully recommend a meeting of the State Central Club at this place, on the 20th of January, 1869, at 7 P. M.

Fellow citizens, we address you in the spirit of hope and faith. God in His providence has seen fit to deny to us the triumph which we deemed essential to the welfare of the State. If we cannot win, let us seek to deserve success. To the manhood of the State do we appeal. Let the Democratic party of South Carolina remain a power and an influence in the State. Keep your ranks undivided. Adhere to your political principles until better ones invite you to their adoption. From failure gather wisdom; out of defeat get patience and resolution. Preserving your fidelity to the eclectic principles of your party, go bravely and earnestly to work in the field of material development. Thus building up the State upon the basis of labor, and surrounding our political creeds with the solid muniments of wealth, intelligence and virtue, we will redeem our broken fortunes, heal our bleeding wounds, and ere long secure the peaceful triumph of those wise and virtuous elements essential to the dignity of the State and the prosperity of the people."

The suggestion of a State Convention, in this city, at some time during the Winter, we have heretofore thrown out for consideration.

STATE VOTE.—We will publish the official vote of the State to-morrow. We hear some talk of throwing out the vote of Yancey, on account of informality, but we can not think this is so. We shall ascertain the facts by our next.

Mr. Durham's official majority in the Seventh District is eighteen votes.

AGITATION BY CARPET-BAGGERS.

The New York Tribune seems to have been seized with carpet-bag agitations to the sickening point. We copy:

"We have been asked to publish a call for a national convention of Union men, to meet in Washington city, December 9, then and there to consider what legislative or other action is needed to protect the lives, liberty, and property of loyal citizens in the late rebel states.

We decline to print the call, because it is not responsibly signed, and because we trust no such convention is required. The better part of those at the South who supported Seymour and Blair in our late struggle seem now desirous to unite in efforts to secure peace and prosperity to the South, and to the whole country. We trust those efforts, heartily seconded by those of General Grant and his supporters, will prevail. At all events, let us wait and note carefully the effect produced at the South by Gen. Grant's election. Congress will need no prompting to do what is right. Let us not provoke further turbulence and outrage by needlessly anticipating them."

Gen. Prim has addressed a circular to the Captain Generals of the Spanish Provinces, stating that an increase of troops in the Provinces, for which several of the Captain Generals had asked, was beyond the resources of the country. General Prim acts wisely in expressing so great confidence in the public opinion, for if public opinion is not strong enough to support the new order of things, bayonets will avail nothing.—N. Y. Tribune.

What! Bayonets avail nothing! Why not in Spain as well as America? They alone keep the reconstructed shams afloat in the Southern States—according to your own testimony. Why not then in the Peninsula? Is Spanish Republicanism an article of superior quality to Yankee Republicanism? If public opinion is such a precious thing in Spain, why not here? Will the Philosopher expound?—Rich. Whig.

North Carolina Inventors Robbed of their Honors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—No doubt you have seen, or will see, much in the newspapers about Capt. Moncrieff's protected barbette gun-carriage. Already the New York World has an article on the subject, in which it is characterized as one of the most important inventions in the art of warfare in modern times, and Congress is urged to devote special attention to it early in the December session.

The inventor, Capt. Moncrieff, is an Englishman, and I mail for you, with this, the illustrated London News, containing a representation of the carriage, with a heavy gun mounted and men posted ready for firing. The article referred to in the World I subjoin. Besides, if you desire it, you can get a full and interesting account of the experiments with it in England from the News:

"THE MONCRIEFF BATTERY.—We call attention to the matter we print in another column from the London Spectator, concerning the Moncrieff battery. This latest invention in the art of warfare is one of the most important discoveries of modern times, in that it actually does away with the cumbersome and expensive forts and coast defences, and makes every gun a fortification in itself. In brief, the construction of the gun carriage is such that the recoil of the gun is utilized so as to drop the gun down instead of driving it back, and, by means of a counterweight, the gun is thus lowered to load and raised again to fire. The heaviest guns are thus used with as much facility in the field as if they were rifles. But more than this, the Moncrieff battery dispenses with embrasures; and avoids the difficulties and dangers of firing en barbette. A mere mound of earth is all the defence necessary for the gun or the artillerists, or the gun may be placed in a pit, since it appears only to be fired, and instantly disappears behind the embankment, or below the surface in the pit. The plan is so simple, and all the experiments have been so satisfactory, that the battery commends itself to the attention of governments, our own especially, now engaged in building enormously expensive fortifications, like Fort Richmond, for instance, in this harbor. We call upon Congress to devote special attention early in the December session to this invention. If the Moncrieff battery does what is claimed for it, expensive fortifications and extravagant appropriations therefor may henceforth be avoided. There can be no cheaper or more complete defence than this battery; it can be used anywhere on the coast or in the field; it commends itself especially to the Emperor of Russia and those who are engaged with him in "mitigating the horrors of war." The true way to do this is to make war so horrible that nations will hesitate to engage in war; and this battery, which threatens the foe only and offers absolute immunity to the protected artillerists, is a thing to be introduced generally, and especially in a nation whose President elect announces as his platform, "Let us have peace." The Moncrieff battery is a practical illustration of what Burke calls "the cheap defence of nations."

Now, you may be surprised, when I inform you that the late Colonel George B. Singeltary, of N. C., during the first year of the war, and while stationed at Newbern, invented a similar gun carriage, which, as I remember, had all the advantages claimed for Capt. Moncrieff's. The model carriage was gotten up under the superintendence of Col. Singeltary, at the Ship Yard of Messrs. Howard & Co., Newbern, and the gun was made in the shop of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad by Mr. Thomas H. Hudson, at the time Master Machinist.—The work was beautifully executed and the whole reflected great credit on the skill of the mechanics, as well as the genius of the inventor. But, not unlike many other matters of vital importance, there was too much red tape to go through with, and too many officers with ancient notions to consult, to get it adjusted; hence the whole thing was allowed to perish in parturition.

Only a few days before the sad event, which deprived the army of one of its best and bravest officers, Colonel Singeltary observed to the writer of this, that he was still sanguine of the success and adoption of his gun carriage, as soon as he could get time to demonstrate, by experiments, to the proper authorities, the great advantage it gave, in war, over the ordinary carriages then in general use.

We trust the model carriage is still in existence, if not in the possession of the family of Col. Singeltary, for at least let those to whom it is due have the honor, if no other benefit is to be derived, from such an important invention.

While on this subject, we will mention the fact, of which we believe you are now cognizant, that, in the year 1829, John Gill, of Newbern, invented a revolving gun, almost a model of Colt's pistols, and, some years afterwards and previous to Colt's patent, carried it to Washington to have it patented. Unfortunately, though a man of great mechanical genius, he was as simple and confiding as a child; therefore, on his return home, his friends were not surprised to learn that he had met a kind friend, who informed him it was "an old thing" and it would be simply throwing his money and time away to attempt to get a patent. In the meantime, an opportunity was offered and availed of for a thorough examination of the gun. Gill died in poverty, in the county where he was born, and is now almost forgotten by his neighbors, while Colt died a millionaire with a world wide reputation. Of such is the kingdom of the world!

The Gill Gun was in the possession of a gentleman residing in the city of Newbern, and was lost when that place was captured by Burnside's expedition.

When Col. Thomas Ruffin was in Congress, many facts in reference to this invention were collected and given to him, as the children of Gill were left very poor; but the war, coming on, prevented his taking any action in the matter, which could ever, in any way, redound to their interest.

D.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE EVERYWHERE.—The Lynchburg Virginian says:

"For ourselves, we may say that we have fought this matter on principle, never having been able to view it in the light of expediency; but if we are to be overborne by the remorseless majority of the North, and they will apply this principle to themselves, we shall have much less right to complain, even though a larger share of the evil of unlimited negro suffrage will fall to us. In that case we should accept it for better or for worse. So, go ahead, Mr. Greeley, and let us have 'equality before the law,' with the right to choose representatives in all the States alike. As submission, not choice, is the alternative presented to us, we will submit. Now, what more can be asked?"

Stop the Thief.

STOLEN FROM MY STABLES, on the night of the 16th inst., a DARK BAY MARE, 11 years old, with dark or black mane and tail, about 5 feet high. The thief has probably gone in the direction of Gold-boro', as he passed through Selma, in this County, where he stopped and had the mare shod.

A suitable reward will be given for her recovery, or any information that will lead to it. I want the thief as well as the mare.

FROM ALABAMA—STATE FAIR—THE LEGISLATURE, &c.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 19, P. M.

The first Alabama State Fair held since 1860 commenced in this City on yesterday. It is numerously attended. Many visitors from other States are present. The number of articles and of stock exhibited is far beyond expectation. It will continue two days longer. It is looked upon as a grand success.

The Legislature adjourned for the Fair, on yesterday, and will probably do no business this week.

The State gives Grant about four thousand and two hundred majority.

The number of white voters in the State, according to the census of 1866, is 106,000, and of negro voters 90,000. Grant received, in the State, seventy-six thousand, three hundred and sixty-six, and Seymour seventy-two thousand and eighty-six. It is estimated that at least thirty-five thousand whites did not vote.

The Snow at Fredericksburg.

[BY MISS LAURA C. REDDEN—A DEAF & DUMB LADY.]

Drift over the slopes of the sunshine land,
O wonderful, wonderful snow!
Oh, pure as the breast of the virgin saint,
Drift tenderly, soft, and slow,
Over the slopes of the sunrise land,
And into the haunted dells
Of the forests of pine, where the sobbing winds
Are tuning their memory bells:—

Into the forests of sighing pines,
And over those yellow slopes
That seem but the work of the cleaving plow,
But cover so many hopes.
They are many indeed, and straightly made,
Not shapen with loving care;
But the souls let out and the broken blades
May never be counted here.

Fall over those lonely hero graves
O delicate dropping snow!
Like the blessings of God's unfaltering love,
On the warrior heads below;
Like the tender sigh of a mother's soul,
As she watcth and watcteth for one
Who will never come back from the sunrise land
When this terrible war was done.

And here, where lieth the high of heart,
Drift, white as the bridal veil
That will never be worn by the drooping girl
Who sitteth afar, so pale;
Fall, fast as the tears of the suffering wife,
Who stretcheth despairing hands
Out to the blood rich battle-fields
That crimson the eastern sands.

Fall in thy virgin tenderness,
O delicate snow! and cover
The graves of our heroes, sanctified,
Husband, and son, and lover.
Drift tenderly over those yellow slopes,
And mellow our deep distress,
And put us in mind of the shriven souls
And their mantles of righteousness.
